If you have been upset or affected by reading this Call for Views or commenting on the issues involved, help and support is available.

The Domestic and Sexual Abuse Helpline can be contacted free of charge, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. This is a confidential service available to both women and men. A telephone translation service is also available.

Trained helpline workers can talk about the help and support that you could get. You can also contact the Helpline if you're worried about a friend or relative and you want support on how to help them. The Helpline also provides information to statutory agencies and charities.

To contact the Helpline call 0808 802 1414. It is free and the number doesn't appear on a landline telephone bill. You can also send an email to the Helpline address help@dsahelpline.org. The email service is also confidential and doesn't record your email address. Visit www.dsahelpline.org for more information and webchat.

You can also seek emotional and practical support from Victim Support NI if you have been affected by crime.
